Friday 5th May 2023

Our Learning:

- This week we have been learning about The King's Coronation.
- We have had discussions about who the King is and what the coronation means. We have listened to a number of stories, one of the favourites being 'Winnie-the-Pooh Meets The King.'
- During independent learning time the children have decorated union jacks, made crowns and written party lists and invitations.

Upcoming: -

Our focus for the next two weeks will be: Julia Donaldson Stories

!!! NEW DATE DUE TO OTHER EVENTS IN SCHOOL !!!!
Tuesday 23rd May—we will be having a Cinderella's Ball.
The children are to come to school dressed fit for a ball (please note dresses must not be too long as they will be outside at playtime and lunchtime). !!!!

Dates:-

Monday 8th May—Coronation Bank Holiday

Friday 19th May—YR Open Session

Friday 26th May—Last Day of term and children to come to school in PE kits.

We are hoping to develop our outdoor area further, we would really appreciate any of the following:

- Evergreen plants and herbs
- Any shape/size baskets, or wooden crates
- Cable drum reels
- Flowers/seeds
- Log slices
- Tree stumps
- Gardening tools
- Wooden planks

We hope you all have a lovely weekend! We would love to see any photographs of your celebrations for the Coronation!
