

Gnosall St Lawrence CE Primary Academy

Collective Worship Policy

DRAFT

Our vision:

Here at Gnosall St Lawrence we enable all pupils and adults to achieve their full potential, as part of a larger community, working and growing together, with Jesus beside us. We pray that our children's lives will be filled with truly good qualities and we believe God's Spirit will empower our children for action. Our children 'will be humble, considering others before themselves' (Philippians) and embrace their roles as courageous advocates in our local, national and global communities.

We will shine as lights in the world (Philippians 2:16)

Collective worship plays a central part in the life of Gnosall St Lawrence CE Primary Academy and is a means by which the school's Christian vision is expressed. As an expression of the Christian vision, ethos and spiritual life of the academy it offers the whole school community opportunities to experience, participate in and take responsibility for the living expression of Christian worship, valued and honoured through the academy's Anglican Foundation. This is set within the context of the community of our school and its historic partnership with St Lawrence Church, Gnosall. We affirm every individual's unique contribution, regardless of age, gender, sexuality, ability, background or religion.

Legal requirements:

Trust Deed

Our daily act of collective worship is in accordance with the Trust Deed of the academy. This requires worship to be consistent with the faith, principles and practices of the Church of England.

DfES guidance

We also take into account DfES legislation. The following link will take you to the current legislation.

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/collective-worship-in-schools>

1988 Education Act

We also take into account the 1988 Education that states,

'....all pupils in attendance at a maintained school shall in each school day take part in an act of collective worship',

And, that this should be,

'....mainly of a broadly Christian character'

Worship Timetable

Monday - Whole school collective worship

Tuesday - Class worship

Wednesday - Class worship

Thursday - Whole school collective worship. On alternate weeks this is led by the Open the Book team and by staff members.

Friday - Celebration worship. This whole school worship rotates between Celebration, Shining Light Award and Class. Once a half term, when there is Whole School Forum and YR Open Sessions, class worship is then carried out later that day.

Section 48 Statutory Inspection of Anglican & Methodist Schools (SIAMS)

All church schools, whether they are Voluntary Aided (VA ), Voluntary Controlled (VC) or Foundation (F) will be inspected on collective worship and the impact this has on the whole school community (SIAMS IQ 3). The core question of this strand is, how is collective worship allowing adults and pupils to flourish spiritually? Here at Gnosall St Lawrence CE Primary Academy this inspection will evaluate the academy's collective worship on the following:

- a. How do the theologically rooted Christian vision and the Anglican/Methodist foundation of the school shape worship and spirituality in the school?
- b. How do partnerships with the DBE and/or MAST, and partnerships with parish/local church/es enhance this?
- c. In what ways is the worship life of the school inclusive, invitational, and inspirational?
- d. In the context of the school as a Church school, what do pupils and adults understand to be the meaning of spirituality? How does this enhance and enrich collective worship and individuals' spiritual development?
- e. How does the trust contribute to and enhance the school's worship and spiritual life?

The right of withdrawal - see appendix

We recognise the right of withdrawal from worship for pupils at the request of parents and for staff, but encourage discussion with the relevant individuals to ensure that there is understanding of the aims and objectives of worship, and strategies for minimising the disruption caused by any withdrawals

Aims of worship

The gathering of pupils each day incorporates collective worship. Worship will be:

- Appropriate to the age, aptitude and family background of pupils.
- Provided in a variety of settings, groupings and timings, with a variety of leaders (see worship timetable above)

- reinforce school expectations, good behaviour and school/academies routines
- share local school/academies and community information

Management of worship

Ultimately the responsibility for collective worship lies with the Head Teacher and the Chair of Governors, as does the role of planning, resourcing, managing worship. The role of evaluating worship has been delegated to the RE subject leader and to Foundation Governors. In addition all teachers in a church school are 'spiritual leaders' and have a responsibility to help pupils develop spiritual awareness.

Resourcing worship

Worship should be adequately resourced to ensure that it is regarded as an important part of school life. Pupils are encouraged and provided opportunities to plan acts of worship (whole school, year group, key stage or class / form), so that they have ownership of it; this is carried out through the Whole School Forum.

Monitoring, evaluating & action planning worship

Worship is monitored and evaluated frequently in order to ensure that it meets the needs of all who take part; all stakeholders opinions are sought. A yearly action plan which feeds into the school development plan is written and revised to ensure that worship remains relevant and up to date.

Worship themes and current practice

The worship themes for each week are based around Christian values using a variety of resources. Bible stories linked to the values are read, discussed and reflected on by the children with guidance from staff. Class worship is recorded in the class worship journals in a variety of ways: annotated photos; artwork, drawing, etc.

Guidance for schools and academies on the right to withdrawal from Religious Education and Collective Worship March 2017

Collective Worship

The 1944 Education Act gave the right to withdraw from RE or collective worship to parents who wished their children to receive different form of RE or worship. This right is also confirmed in section 71 of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998. In the case of collective worship, the government guidance document is Circular 1/94: Religious Education and Collective Worship.

Collective worship in all Church of England schools and academies should honour the school's trust deed and Christian foundations. Worship is central to school life, offering an opportunity for the whole school community to explore the distinctive beliefs and narrative that underpins the school's Anglican foundations and distinctive Christian character. Worship is the responsibility of the governing body in conjunction with the headteacher, working in partnership with the staff and the local parish church.

Our Church of England schools should strive to ensure they are consistently excellent, distinctive, and inclusive, and that the whole curriculum is underpinned by Christian values. Religious Education is an important part of the curriculum in all Church of England schools and academies. Its nature, objectives, and content should be shared with parents each term to ensure that parents are able to recognise that RE is of educational value to all pupils, whatever their belief background. In the same way, collective worship should lie at the heart of school life, proclaiming its distinctive character and faith in a way that is relevant, inclusive and that leads each pupil a little further in their spiritual journey. In this way, the likelihood for parental requests for withdrawal should be reduced. However, when they are made they must be handled accordingly to the legal guidance, while there is scope for a little realism and adaptability in order to ensure the best for every pupil.

In many of our schools within the Diocese of Lichfield, there is a large percentage of children whose families are members of another faith. It is the purpose and duty of every church school to be distinctive as a Church of England school. In each school, it is part of the mission of the church to welcome those of other faiths and no faith. In most cases, parents will have chosen the school for their child, making a specific choice of the school because of the ethos and education it offers. In a small number of cases, parents of other faiths will have been offered a place at a church school because no other school has a place for their child within a reasonable catchment area.

The right to withdraw from collective worship should be at the instigation of the parents or pupils above the age of 16.

The right of withdrawal from collective worship

The right of withdrawal from collective worship would normally be exercised through the physical withdrawal of the pupil from the place where the act of worship is taking place. Indeed the school could insist that this is the way the right is to be implemented. If, however, both the parent and the school agree that the pupil should be allowed to remain physically present during the collective worship but not take part in it, nothing in the law prevents this.

Experience suggests that, to avoid misunderstanding, a Headteacher / Principal will find it helpful to establish with any parent wanting to exercise the right to withdrawal:

- the elements of worship in which the parent would object to the child taking part;
- the practical implications of withdrawal; and
- whether the parent will require any advanced notice of such worship, and, if so, how much.

Where parents have withdrawn their children from collective worship and request religious worship according to a particular faith or denomination, the governors and Headteacher / Principal will seek to respond positively to such requests providing:

- such arrangements can be made at no additional cost to the school; and
- that the alternative provision would be consistent with the overall purposes of the school curriculum as set out in Section 1 of the 1988 Education Act. (Circular 1/94)
